Diocesan and Deanery Events
Vocation Matters: "And there fruit will be good to eat and their leaves medicinal" "God wants spiritual fruits not religious nuts" is one of those car stickers which gets a lot of people hot under the collar. However one may read into this, it cannot be denied that Jesus says of his true followers that, "by their fruits you will know them". On this Feast Day, we are encouraged to dive into the river of the Spirit, where fruit grows all along the banks. Whilst it's a river which we cannot cross, it is a river which we can be safely immersed in. It's a river which flows from the side of Jesus and into the sacramental life of our holy Church. It's a river which allows us to bear fruit according to our calling.
The Diocesan Trustees are looking for an additional Trustee with property management experience. The position is unpaid apart from basic expenses but provides an opportunity to help the efficient running of the Diocese. It will be of interest to a Catholic professional who can commit to approximately two days a month. It provides challenging work which can be seen to be the equivalent of being a non-executive director in a commercial organisation. If you are interested please contact Andrea Barrett, Secretary to the Trustees, at andrea.barrett@cliftondiocese.com or 01179025591 by Friday 14th November.
