DIOCESAN AND DEANERY EVENTS.

PROCLAIM 15 'Whoever serves me must follow me; and where I am, my servant also will be. My Father will honour the one who serves me'

"This is the mission of the Church: the Church that heals, that cares [for people]. I sometimes describe the Church as a field hospital. True, there are many wounded, how many wounded! How many people who need their wounds to be healed! This is the mission of the Church: to heal the wounded hearts, to open doors, to free [people], to say that God is good, God forgives all, that God is our Father, God is tender, that God is always waiting for us ... ". Pope Francis

May we know that we are called to be servants in co-mission with the healing Lord. Take time this week to know intimately the forgiving healing touch of the Father and so take that presence of the healing Lord into those broken people and places.

Deanery Penitential Service: This will take place on Sunday 22nd March 2015 at 3.00pm in the church of the Immaculate Conception, Stroud. Refreshments will be served after the service.

Come and spend some time in Prayer: Theme: The Cross is not the end – I am embraced by Christ's love on Sunday 29th March 2015 from 2pm to 6pm at the Marist Retreat Centre, Nympsfield, GL103TY; Donation £10.00. Please book by the 8th March 2015; Tel: 01453 861511 or maristconvent@btconnect.com.

Vocation Matters: "Sir, we should like to see Jesus"

Night fever is a very simple but effective evangelisation project, which will be brought to St Mary-on-the-Quay parish, Bristol in May. It aims to create a prayerful, reflective space in a city centre church on a busy Saturday night, where passersby can be invited in to light a candle. Jesus is present throughout the time on the altar. There have been many testimonies of people being powerfully touched by such projects. Jesus is the one doing the work, but people need to find us attractive enough to be drawn in to His presence. They need to trust us first. Living out our vocation well, others hopefully will want to turn to us and ask us to show them Jesus.
